

The Sunday Stinger

Midway Elementary School

Week of August 29th

Happy Sunday! The second week of school was another great week. I feel like our students are understanding our routines and procedures. After orientation last week, I hope that you have a better understanding of our routines and procedures as well. As we enter September, I encourage you to be an active role in your child's education. Ask them about their day, review their current grade level topics, and challenge them to be the best they can be.

Our Charleston Wrap fundraiser will end on Friday. Charleston Wrap is a South Carolina based company notorious for a variety of items, but they are well known for their wrapping paper. This is a very simple fundraiser that benefits students, parents, and our school. All items ordered will be shipped and will not pass through the school. The more people who order through your student's links, the more free items you receive and the more money our school receives. Feel free to let your family and friends know that your child/children will be selling these items soon! Check out the registration letter here. This is a great way to stock up for the holidays and support our school at the same time.

Organization ID# 19696

Team Day is this Friday! With the official start of college football season starting Saturday, what better way to kick-off the season than with a team day? Your student may wear a shirt or hat representing their favorite team. Our staff plans to participate by wearing our team colors of choice, and we hope that your student can join us!

Beginning on Monday, August 30th, all students who ride a school bus will be required to wear a mask on the bus. The South Carolina Department of Education released this information on Thursday of last week. Please be prepared your student with a mask if they are a bus rider before or after school.
